Case No. 2:10-cv-01617-RCJ

MOTION TO CERTIFY JUDGMENT
AS FINAL UNDER FEDERAL RULE
OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 54(b)

23

1 The Motion of Third Party Defendants and Counterclaimants and Fourth Party
2 Plaintiffs DACA-Castaic, LLC and Debt Acquisition Company of America V, LLC
3 (collectively, “DACA”) respectfully represents:

4 1. This action was originally a lawsuit on a promissory note (executed by
5 Castaic Partners III, LLC) and on a related guaranty executed by William J. Barkett.
6 The case was commenced on behalf of one plaintiff (the Richard and Sheila J.
7 McKnight Family Trust). A large number of Direct Lenders later sought and obtained
8 leave to file a complaint in intervention relating to the Castaic III obligation and two
9 other similar loans, naming as defendants the borrowers (Castaic Partners, LLC,
10 Castaic Partners II, LLC and Castaic Partners III, LLC) and Mr. Barkett (collectively
11 the “Barkett Parties”). The Direct Lenders’ complaint in intervention sought, among 12 other things, a money judgment against Mr. Barkett on his guarantees of each loan.

13 2. DACA was impleaded into the case when the Barkett Parties named
14 DACA as a third party defendant. DACA counterclaimed against the Barkett Parties.
15 DACA was later granted leave to file a supplemental counterclaim and a fourth party
16 complaint naming certain additional Barkett affiliates as fourth party defendants.
17 Pursuant to Court order, DACA filed a consolidated pleading on March 25, 2013 as 18 ECF No. 231. DACA’s pleadings seek only declaratory relief.

19 3. After granting DACA’s motion for summary judgment by Order entered
20 January 5, 2015 (ECF No. 352), this Court entered its Judgment on January 29, 2015
21 (ECF No. 355)(the “DACA Judgment”). The DACA Judgment disposes of all claims
22 for relief by and against DACA in this action.

23 ///

24 ///

1 4. The Direct Lenders' complaint in intervention has not yet been litigated.
2 In minutes filed on April 29, 2015 (ECF No 365) the Court scheduled a further status
3 conference to take place on July 24, and made reference to the preparation of a
4 "Proposed Discovery Plan / Scheduling Order." No motion for summary judgment has 5 been filed on either side.

6 5. As confirmed by the DACA Judgment, DACA has completed valid
7 foreclosures of two of the three trust deeds involved in this case, which secured what
8 are referred to as the Tapia Ranch Note and Castaic II Note. DACA-Castaic has 9 elected not to proceed with the foreclosure of the Castaic III Trust Deed.

10 6. The Purchase Agreement referred to in the DACA Judgment, under 11 which DACA became the assignee of record of the Castaic Notes and Trust Deeds,
12 excluded by its terms the Guarantees. All claims under the Guarantees were intended
13 to remain with the Direct Lenders. In accordance with this intent, DACA did not sue
14 on the Guarantees. The claims for relief raised in DACA's pleadings were only for 15 declaratory relief, to facilitate the foreclosure of the trust deeds. The Direct Lenders
16 did sue on the Guarantees via their complaint in intervention.

17 7. Notwithstanding DACA's position that the provisions of the Purchase
18 Agreement excluding the Guarantees are valid, paragraph 1.19 of the DACA
19 Judgment incorporates this Court's ruling to the contrary, stating:

20 The assignment of the Castaic Notes and Trust Deeds
21 necessarily included, by operation of law, and assignment of rights
under any guarantees of the obligations under those Notes.
Accordingly, DACA is the real party in interest with respect to any 22 claims based on those guarantees.

23 ///

24 ///

1 8. Because the foreclosure sales have now been completed, and the six
2 month post-foreclosure limitations period provided by NRS § 40.455 has expired,
3 there is no claim against the borrowers for a post-foreclosure deficiency under the
4 Tapia Ranch Note or Castaic II Note. Accordingly, the only obligation remaining on
5 those loans is the disputed obligation of Mr. Barkett under the Guaranties.

6 9. To the extent that, pursuant to the DACA Judgment, DACA-Castaic is 7 the real party in interest as to Guaranty claims currently being prosecuted on behalf of
8 the Direct Lenders, DACA hereby ratifies the continued prosecution of those claims
9 in the name of the Direct Lenders pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
10 17(a)(3).

11 10. The claims of the Direct Lenders under the Guaranties, and under the 12 Castaic III Note, Trust Deed and Guaranty, are now legally separate and distinct from 13 the rights of DACA relating to the foreclosures, which rights are spelled out by way of 14 the declaratory relief provided by the DACA Judgment.

15 11. There is no just cause for delay and the DACA Judgment should be 16 certified as final under Federal Rule of Civil Procedures 54(b), for the reasons that:

17 11.1 The DACA Judgment completely removes DACA as a party to the 18 remaining litigation.

19 11.2 The claims by and against DACA essentially all relate to DACA's
20 foreclosure of the Tapia Ranch and Castaic II Trust Deeds. The validity of that 21 foreclosure cannot be affected by the monetary claims by and against the Direct
22 Lenders.

23 11.3 Continued delay in obtaining a final resolution of the validity of 24 DACA's foreclosure is prejudicial to the Direct Lenders.

2 WHEREFORE DACA prays for relief as follows:

3 12. For an order certifying that the DACA Judgment, entered January 29,
4 2015 as ECF No. 355, be certified as final for purposes of appeal pursuant to Federal
5 Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b).

6 13. That the order include an express finding that there is “no just reason for 7 delay” as required by Rule 54(b). See, Nat'l Ass'n of Home Builders v. Norton, 325
8 F.3d 1165, 1167 (9th Cir. 2003).
